

Source Water Protection through Comprehensive Planning for Local Governments and Drinking Water
Operators Agenda
September 30, 2010 - Burley, Idaho

9:00 - 9:15	Introduction and Welcome	DEQ
9:15 - 10:15	Session 1: Ground Water and Source Water Vulnerability and Risks in Idaho Ground Water and Source Water Vulnerability in Idaho Source Water Overview	DEQ
10:15 - 10:30	Break and Poster Session
10:30 - 12:00	Session 2: Source Water Protection Resources Source Water Protection Grants and Local Examples Source Water Assessment Website DEQ Ground Water Quality Database Website Springdale Ground Water Quality Investigation Idaho Environmental Guide	DEQ
12:00 - 1:00	Lunch and Video
1:00 - 2:40	Concurrent Session 3: Comprehensive Planning for Local Government Officials Introduction: What is planning? Planning Overview: Importance, Processes, and Outcomes Planning in Idaho: Land Use Planning Act, Subdivision Act, Area of City Impact, Impact Fees	Diane Kushlan
1:00 - 2:40	Concurrent Session 3: Drinking Water Protection for Drinking Water Operators Introduction: What is planning? (joint with local government officials) Drinking Water Protection Plans Drinking Water Operator Resources Advocating for Your System	Diane Kushlan, AICP and DEQ
2:40 - 3:00	Break and Poster Session
3:00 - 4:30	Session 4: Source Water Protection through Comp Plans Exercise: Review and Critique Local Comprehensive Plans and Development Regulations Planning Tools for Addressing Water Quality Discussion of Local Water Issues and How These Tools Might Be Used	Diane Kushlan
4:30 - 4:45	Concluding Remarks and Evaluations	DEQ